HEALTHY HABITS COACHING PROGRAMS

Sometimes, making changes isn't easy, but when you find your own motivation and take change one step at a time, it's more manageable. Our lifestyle programs can help you make the positive changes you want to – and stick with them!

consists of two separate, unique programs (these programs are ent into each program is optional):

ROGRAM	LIFE HEALTH ASSESSMENT
The Healthy Habits Coaching Program has three areas of focus. iCanChange iCanChange uses a personalized, flexible, and supportive approach to help you reach your weight and health goals. iCanThrive iCanThrive can help you learn how to fuel your body with healthy foods, begin a program of enjoyable physical movement, and relax more. iCanRelax iCanRelax can help you become aware of stress and how it affects you, and gain skills for handling your reactions to stressful demands and changes. The iCan Programs will help you understand your behaviors and help you make changes. The programs feature an optional telephonic or online personal health coach, a personal homepage with a tracker, interactive tools and much more!	This assessment is a global evaluation of your physical health, behavioral health, and motivation to change. Answer a series of questions and get immediate feedback in a detailed personal report that helps you understand how to make changes. Areas Assessed: • Current health • Nutrition
